What's new:

and Blastable Tiles! Jezuz, the building on the left is the Dubai Mall and the one on the right is the Souk Al Bahar! You will see the center of both areas from the ferry/barge! Let the Blastin' begin! (The noise is from the Ferris Wheel!) For our group, this was our second Bahamian resort we have been to. We were here three years ago and loved it, so when we returned this year we wanted to explore more of what Nassau has to offer and this is what we ended up doing! Here are a few of the things I didn't mention in the previous article, which I guess I should have: The Barge Ride - $11 an adult, or only $6 for children! The Sand Cabanas - $179.00 Goodbye baggage fees! After a delicious breakfast at the Hopper's Nest Cafe, we boarded the ferry for our ride to Treasure Island. I know what you are thinking - there are no ships in Nassau! Well, you are wrong - the Bahamas does have ships! On this day we were visiting their Floating Pier, it's kinda like the Sea World of Nassau, if you have seen it. We hopped on a Foot Clicker, boarded a small boat and climbed a platform and then went down a slide, had some fun and then wandered around near some of the Hurricane Bay area. They also have a lot of live entertainment. They also offer fantastic activities for kids. Loads of options here! Coral Reef Cruises - $79.00 for adults, $37.00 children 15-17 Another way to enjoy the Bahamas, at a lower cost! Icing on cake! We opted for the Premier Cruise which meant we had a very nice lunch, an unlimited Spa Product and there were staterooms with Hot Tub! Read more here! Because we were all in different spots working, Josh, Dave and I spent time at the Nassau Cruise Port, explored the area, had lunch, enjoyed a baby

The woman who shot and killed a Texas sheriff's deputy in December was sentenced Wednesday to 10 years in prison and ordered to pay the department $6,000 in restitution. Jade Nicole Taylor was convicted last week by an Anderson County jury of the murder of Kim McAffrey, who was gunned down Dec. 2 in an ambush on a rural road north of Waco. McAffrey's father, Jack, said outside the courtroom that his family is "very grateful that justice has been served." "Justice was not just served for my family, but for the families of all law enforcement officers who risk their lives every day to serve and protect others," he said. State District Judge Bryan Church set a May 19 sentencing for Taylor, 20, who had pleaded guilty to murder. In her closing argument to the jury, Taylor's attorney urged the jury to find her guilty of the lesser charge of murder without malice. Taylor, who was 17 years old when she shot and killed McAffrey, said she could have done the crime. "What people don't understand is even in a life and death situation, we have choices,
